In total, the selected projects bring together 100 full partners from all across Europe, amongst which 90 higher education institutions. They are joined by around 190 associated partners with a sound geographical balance, including all EU Member States, Norway, Turkey, Switzerland and the United Kingdom. 17 Ministries from 16 countries (BE-FI, CH, CY, CZ, DE, EL, ES, FI, FR, HR, IT, LT, NL, PL, PT, RO), as well as 22 accreditation/quality assurance agencies from 17 countries (BE-FI, AT, CH, CY, DK, EE, EL, ES, FR, HR, HU, IE, IT, LT, NL, PT, RO) have joined the projects, either as full or associated partner, to work side by side with the higher education institutions on more effective European higher education cooperation. Higher education institutions from 21 European Universities alliances² are participating in exploring the joint European degree label. Higher education institutions from 3 European Universities alliances (ECIU, EUt+, UNITA) will explore a possible European legal status for their alliance, on top of UniGR (Université de la Grande Région). Several projects also include student unions amongst their associated partners.
